Definition : A function $f : D \to C$ is a bijection means that it is both one-to-one and onto. The inverse of a bijection $f : D \to C$ is the function $g : C \to D$ such that $g(b) = a$ iff $f(a) = b$.